Adult II

Open Door: Room 211 - meeting with the Stewards Class

This class is designed to encourage discussion based on Bible-based study books, the goal being to create opportunities to help class members become more effective Christians.

Seekers: Room 159

Interactive discussion of the Lifeway Quarterly Curriculum led by Ken Paciocco. "Once a seeker, always a seeker" -- that's the motto. For believers, new and old.

Adult III

Footprints: Room 114

Pam Paciocco & Jerry Parr lead this long-term class with material from the quarterly Smyth-Helwys material, with group members striving to live biblically and encourage each other in the Lord.

Koinonia: Room 158

A close-knit group having been together for many years, this class studies the Bible with the help of Smyth-Helwys lesson material. Retired pastors, missionaries, and church leaders serve as teachers.

New Visions: Room 112

Service-oriented and ready to learn, this class is involved in projects at Derbyshire and in our community, while also engaging deep study and discussion of the Bible and Christian literature. Members rotate guiding discussions.

Sojourners: Room 105

Led by Noel Pace, this class studies scripture together on Sundays and loves one another beyond the classroom, having care groups within.
